Grow Old With You

A Bm

I wanna make you smile, whenever you're sad,

C#m D

Carry you around when your arthritis is bad,

A E D A E

All I wanna do, is grow old with you.

A Bm

I'll get your medicine, when your tummy aches,

C#m D

Build you a fire if the furnace breaks oh,

A E D A A7

It could be so nice, growing old with you,

D A

I'll miss you, kiss you, give you my coat when you are cold.

D E stop D stop

I need you, feed you, even let you hold the remote control.

A Bm

So let me do the dishes in our kitchen sink,

C#m D stop

Put you to bed when you've had too much to drink,

A stop E D A

Oh I could be the man, who grows old with you.

E D A

I wanna grow old with you.

I Wanna Grow Old With You Lyrics

Adam Sandler - I wanna Grow Old With You
I wanna make you smile
Whenever you're sad
Carry you around when your arthritis is bad
All i wanna do, is grow old with you

I'll get you medicine when your tummy aches
Build you a fire if the furnace breaks
So, it could be so nice growing old with you,....

I'll miss you
Kiss you
Give you my coat when you are cold
Need you
Feed you
Even let you hold the remote control.

So let me do the dishes in our kitchen sink
Put you to bed when you've had too much to drink
Oh I could be the man that grows old with you
I wanna grow old with you.

too much to drink oh, I could be the man who grows old with you I wan - na grow old with you

May 31, 2016 You may have recently heard the news of a security incident involving Myspace. We want to make sure you have the facts about what happened, what information was involved, and the steps we are taking to protect your information. What happened? Just before Memorial Day weekend (late May 2016), we learned that stolen Myspace user data had been exposed on an online hacking forum. The stolen data included user credentials from a subset of accounts created prior to June 11, 2013 on the legacy Myspace platform. We believe the data breach is related to the Russian hacker "Peace". The same person recently responsible for other criminal attacks such as LinkedIn and Tumblr claimed the data came from a previous breach of the hacking paid search engine LeakedSource. . This investigation is ongoing and we will provide more information as it becomes available. What information was it about? Email addresses, Myspace usernames, and Myspace passwords for affected Myspace accounts created prior to June 11, 2013 on the legacy Myspace platform are at risk. As you know, Myspace does not collect, use, or store any credit card information or financial information about users. Thus, this incident did not relate to the user's financial information; The only information disclosed was the user's email address and Myspace username and password. What We Are Doing To protect our users, we have revoked all user passwords for affected accounts created prior to June 11, 2013 on the legacy Myspace platform. Users returning to Myspace will be prompted to verify their account and reset their password by following the instructions at . Myspace also uses automated tools to try to identify and block any suspicious activity that Myspace detects. . accounts. We have also reported the incident to law enforcement and are cooperating with the investigation continue in this crime. As part of the relaunch of the main site in the summer of 2013, Myspace took significant steps to strengthen account security. The data in question refer to the period before the implementation of these measures. We currently use advanced protocols for storing passwords, including double hashes (random data used as additional input to a one-way function that "hashes" a password or passphrase). Myspace has taken additional security measures in light of a recent report. What you can do We have several dedicated teams working diligently to ensure the security of the information our members entrust to Myspace. Important: If you use passwords that are the same or similar to your Myspace password on other online services, we recommend that you set new passwords for those accounts immediately. More information If you have any questions, please contact our security and privacy team at dsp_help@myspace-inc.com and regularly check our blog at for future updates on this incident. Adam Sandler "Grow Old With You" Lyrics (from The Wedding Singer soundtrack) [Billy Idol (speaking):] Good morning everyone to Las Vegas And now we're enjoying the flight One of our first class passengers would like to sing that song Inspired by one of our passengers on the bus And because we let our first class passengers do almost anything they want, here's [Robbie Hart (singing):] I want to make you laugh when you're sad. I want to carry you with me when your arthritis is bad. All I want is to grow old with you. I'll bring you medicine When your stomach hurts When the stove breaks Oh it would be so nice to grow old with you I'll miss you Kisses Give you my coat when you're cold I need to feed you I'll even let you hold the remote So let me do it Dishes in our kitchen sink Sleeping when you've had too much to drink Oh I could be the man to grow old with you. I want to grow old with you. Thank you Cherry Blossom for correcting this text. Authors: Adam R. Sandler, Timothy P.
