

Click Here

Al ikhlas training academy

Al-Ikhlās Training Academy, a non-profit Islamic school in Detroit, has been serving students from preschool to 12th grade since 1991. Over the years, 32 graduating classes have gone on to pursue higher education across the US, with many obtaining degrees in various fields such as education, engineering, and medicine. The academy's mission is to equip students with knowledge of Allah, creation, and self-awareness, aiming to unlock their full potential. Its primary objective is to foster an environment that nurtures academic, social, and spiritual growth, shaping well-rounded individuals who contribute positively to global society. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy offers a comprehensive curriculum covering mathematics, science, social studies, health, and physical education. Islamic knowledge and practice are also prioritized, providing a strong foundation for students' success in higher learning and life. Dear Parents/Guardians, As the new school year begins, we welcome you and your family with warm greetings. We're excited to start another fantastic year and look forward to serving your spiritual and academic needs. Key dates to note: * First day of school: Wednesday, September 4, 2024 * Open House for parents: Monday, September 1, 2024, from 3-5 PM * Register your child/ren at the Open House or in advance Please ensure you register promptly as space is limited. Prior to your child's enrollment, please review and meet the following prerequisites: * New students Have a birth certificate and shot records. Any tuition or fees from last year's school must be paid. Tuition registration fees and down payment must be payed upon registration or on/or before the first day of school. Fees can be payed online at: www.alikhlastrainingacademy.com New students must have a report card or transcript from their previous school. All students must wear proper uniform on their first day of school. (See secretary for info) Student textbook fees should be payed at registration in order to get books in time. Your child will recieve supply list from teacher. Please get these supplies promptly. Enjoy your summer weeks and we look forward to meeting you and your child/ren on Wednesday, September 4th, or before. Was-Salaamu-'Alaikum Nadir S. Ahmad, Director Al-Ikhlās Training Academy is a non-profit Islamic school in Detroit serving students from Preschool through 12th grades. Our mission is to give every student knowledge of Allah and His creation, and knowledge of self. This helps us make the best out of each child's potential. At ATA, we create an environment that allows each student to be good academically, socially, and spiritually. We want students to become healthy and productive citizens of the world. Our administration and staff try hard to build good relationships between parents, students, and school. We have a lot of graduating classes now, with over 33 years of students becoming Muslims and excelling in studies (Alhamdulillah). Our alumni have went to many prestigious universities like Columbia School of Journalism, University of Michigan and Georgetown Law School. ATA alumni are doctors, lawyers, journalists, engineers, etc. They are good at university honor's programs and getting on competitive lists. But most of all, they are trying to serve Allah. This is our Al-Ikhlās Difference. Georgetown LawDiverse Professions: Graduates of ATA, known as Ameeris, excel in various careers such as healthcare, media and communication, law, engineering, and education, enriching society through their contributions.- Community doctors, physician associates, nurses, local news reporters, corporate lawyers, engineers, and educators make significant impacts globally.Community and Global Impact: Supporting ATA means investing in the Muslim-American community at large and the wider world.ATA's legacy extends beyond its premises to its graduates' endeavors that foster constructive change worldwide. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy boasts an impressive graduation rate of 95%, surpassing the national average of 93%. The academy offers three interscholastic sports: Basketball, Flag Football, and Soccer. Its ranking is not explicitly stated in the provided text. Regarding admissions, Al-Ikhlās Training Academy has a rolling application deadline, meaning applications are reviewed as they are received throughout the year. The academy's location is specified as being situated in a particular neighborhood, though this information was removed from the original text. A student who attends Al-Ikhlās Training Academy shared their positive experience, highlighting the school's emphasis on Islamic values and education. They praised the supportive environment, stating that students are encouraged to make changes and be courageous. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy is recognized as an approved examination center for International Open University (formerly known as Islamic Online University). To enroll, applicants must submit an online application along with required documents. Once all necessary materials have been received, the academy will contact the applicant. Upon registration, students are required to provide a certified copy of their birth certificate and other supporting documentation. To enroll at Al-Ikhlās Training Academy, students must provide a valid immunization record and official transcripts from previous schools. Transfer students may be required to take placement tests in reading and math to assess their academic needs. The school is located on McDougall Street in Detroit, Michigan. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy is an all-boys private school that caters to around 236 students. While the school's academic standards are not explicitly stated, its small student-to-teacher ratio of 1:9 may suggest a focused educational environment. However, information about the school's academic requirements and college matriculation data is currently unavailable. The typical admission process for Al-Ikhlās Training Academy includes submitting a school transcript, recommendation letter, application essay, and attending an interview. International students must pay additional fees for student management services. The school is situated in Detroit, with nearby Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport serving as a convenient transportation hub. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy ranks within the top 7000 schools on the FindingSchool network, indicating moderate popularity. Interested applicants should review the school's profile on FindingSchool and contact Al-Ikhlās directly at (313)925-0880 for further information. Known for its rich cultural heritage, Detroit continues to thrive as a hub for arts and innovation. Various sources, including schools, government statistics, and parent/student feedback, contribute to the data collected by FindingSchool. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy (ATA) stands out as a highly regarded private Muslim school in DETROIT, MI, boasting an impressive 253 students across grades K-12 with a low student-to-teacher ratio of 14:1. Tuition for the highest grade is set at $2,725, although this figure may be subject to change for the current academic year. According to official data, a significant 90% of ATA graduates proceed to attend four-year colleges. Niche rankings are based on comprehensive analyses combining U.S. Department of Education statistics with millions of reviews from students and parents. When asked about their school experience, a substantial number of students express satisfaction with the safety and overall atmosphere at ATA. In terms of diversity, ATA excels in racial and economic diversity, according to both student and parent feedback. A considerable majority agree that students here are competitive and showcase a high level of creativity, sportsmanship, and academic engagement. According to numerous reviews, the teachers at ATA not only deliver captivating lessons but also genuinely care for their students' well-being and provide adequate classroom management. Beyond academics, ATA offers a wide array of clubs and activities where students can fully engage themselves. The sense of community within ATA is particularly noteworthy, fostering strong relationships among students, staff, and families who share a common religious faith. The school's small size contributes to an intimate learning environment where teachers are able to provide personalized attention and mentorship, further enhancing the students' passion for education. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy, with its unique blend of academic rigor and community spirit, continues to stand out as a premier educational institution in Detroit. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy offers a unique educational experience that combines academic rigor with Islamic values and principles. Located in Dearborn Heights, Michigan, the school provides a holistic education to students from Pre-K to 12th grade. The comprehensive curriculum integrates Islamic teachings with secular subjects, preparing students for success beyond graduation. Al-Ikhlās Training Academy Earns Accolades for Academic Excellence and Commitment to Islamic Education The school has received numerous recognitions for its academic excellence and dedication to providing an Islamic education. It is also accredited by AdvancED, a prominent global accreditation agency. For families seeking a school that offers a balanced education with a strong focus on Islamic values, Al-Ikhlās Training Academy is highly recommended. To learn more about the school and its admission process, please visit their website at www.alikhlastrainingacademy.com.