Actors: John Glynn (actor), Patrick Koupland (actor), Dominic McHale (actor), Jon McKenna (actor), Joey Montana (actor), Cem Pakiry-Turgut (actor), Piers Robinson (actor), Ruel Howe (actor), Carly Connor (actress), Suren Kay (actress), Jay Grant (producer), Patrick Koupland (producer), Adriel Leff (producer), Olivier Lockhart-Matthews (producer), Cem Pakiry-Turgut (producer), Plot: For two years burly, booze-loving ex-boxer Patrick StGeorge Junior (Patrick Koupland) has been lying low in the leafy Essex village of Theydon Bois, ever since he purposefully threw his last fight and escaped with a pile of cash belonging to menacing boxing promoter Teddy Toddsworth (Dominic McHale). But after receiving the shocking news that his father Patrick StGeorge Senior (Jon McKenna) has been murdered at the hands of Toddsworth himself, Patrick is compelled to come out of hiding, returning to his hometown to exact revenge. However, in order to travel back to London, Patrick must enlist help from the most unlikely of sources - erratic, drug-addled, urban hipster Scott Free (John Glynn), seeking vengeance of his own on bandmate Johnny Windows (Cem Pakiry-Turgut) after being unceremoniously ejected from his wedding. Needless to say, their journey is far from smooth, but once Teddy is confronted, a shocking turn of events means that Patrick and Scott find themselves, along with glamorous hitchhiker Carly Farley (Carly Connor), on the run, traveling across the country to seek refuge at music festival Bruvfest where a climactic showdown awaits them. Keywords: boxing, mockumentary, music-festival, revenge Genres: Comedy, Taglines: A Roadvenge Movie. Actors: John Glynn (actor), Patrick Koupland (actor), Joey Montana (actor), Cem Pakiry-Turgut (actor), Piers Robinson (actor), Suren Kay (actress), Adriel Leff (producer), Olivier Lockhart-Matthews (producer), Cem Pakiry-Turgut (producer), Adriel Leff (writer), Adriel Leff (composer), Adriel Leff (director), Adriel Leff (editor), Plot: Aspiring musician Johnny Windows' dreams of rock'n'roll stardom were ripped apart when music mogul Hilton Constellation poached lead singer and songwriter Brent Cross from his indie rock trio, depriving the band of their frontman and creative heart. But documentary maker Reni Mint is sure that Johnny will get his act together in the seven days before the big local music festival, the Kentish Kreeep, and decides to follow him and drummer Scott Free on their search for a new image, sound, and hopefully a record deal of their own with Hilton. However with Scott's insistence on emulating the latest trends of grime, dance music and dubstep, while Johnny suspects that following in his father Jackie's classic blues rock footsteps is the way forward, can the unlikely pair find any middle ground at all? Genres: Comedy, Taglines: A trendy musician must choose between the traditional roots of his father and the modernist influences of his hand mate to select a song worthy of performing at a local music festival. Budget cuts, low recruitment, and a rash of abuse lawsuits, left the LAPD unable to cope with the rising crime rate. In 2006 the city council passed proposition PSO357 authorizing PSO's (Private Security Officers) to handle all misdemeanor, infraction, and truancy cases. These are the stories of some of these brave PSO's.
